To whom it may concern,

Charles Anthony Bennett volunteered in English as a Second Language classes at Neighborhood House from February 2015 to April 2016. Charles was a classroom assistant, tutor, and teacher. Volunteers are essential to the Neighborhood House Adult Education program, and Charles' service was greatly appreciated. The students benefited from his commitment to education and knowledge of the English language. Students Charles worked with have gone on to obtain employment, retain employment, and enter advanced career training programs.

If you have any questions about Neighborhood House or Mr. Bennett's service as a volunteer, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

John Ashby
